EXERCISE 3.1: Let $x(t) = \sin^2(10\pi t)$. Find an additive combination in the form of (3.8), and then plot the spectrum. Count the number of frequency components in the spectrum. What is the highest frequency contained in $x(t)$? Use the inverse Euler formula rather than a trigonometric identity to obtain the additive form.